BPA News
Thank you for your support for our Macmillan fundraising events! Total to follow.

Conkers – Children may want to start collecting these over the weekend for the upcoming School conker competition.

Poetry Day – The children enjoyed taking part in National Poetry Day on Thursday. They shared and wrote lots of great poems. Why not use the weekend to share your favourite poems together or even write a family one? For more information on Poetry Day see <https://nationalpoetryday.co.uk/> there is also lots of news and photos on our Twitter, Facebook pages.

Activity Camp - Information and booking forms have been sent out for the October Camp. Please note that (as per the earlier Activity Camp email) we are trialling a new system and will require a completed booking form and full payment to secure your child's place. Please click here for brochure.

Sports Matches – Well done to the children representing School this week at Water Polo and Football, some admirable performances and great opportunities. Best wishes to the children running at the Cross Country Race on Saturday.

Ski Trip - Several children have been asking about the trip. If there are any more takers please contact Mrs Mitchell or Mr Sanders as soon as possible

Newsletter - Our latest newsletter, published today, can be viewed here.

Parking - We have had several complaints from residents and road users on Arkwright Road this week regarding dangerous parking and blocking driveways or other traffic. Please could all parents park out of consideration to our neighbours at all times. Thank you.

Newest Member of the Brabyns Family – Welcome to AM in Year 6 who joined us this week. He has had a fun first week, enjoyed all of the lessons and thinks that everyone is really kind!

Uniform – Please can all parents check that their child has the correct uniform. We have several missing (initialled) Junior PE tops, and JB in Y2 is missing a jumper
