

Kevin Burke - Guitar / Ukulele

Hi, I am Kevin Burke. I am an RGT@LCM registered (Registry of Guitar Tutors at London College of Music), fully DBS checked guitar tutor based in Hawk Green, Marple, Stockport. I offer professional guitar tuition, both privately and in schools, teaching electric and acoustic guitar and ukulele catering for all styles and all ability levels from absolute beginner to advanced diploma level students.

Being a practising musician, songwriter and producer, I believe it is key that instruments are taught in a fully musical context. From day one students are encouraged to be musicians and to develop skills that will enable them to play along with music and other musicians, and even write songs of their own.

Practising music should be an enjoyable, creative, enriching experience. Keeping students enthusiastic and motivated whilst continually developing their practical & theoretical skills is a priority. And overall, guitar lessons are great fun!
